tion, acted under an inadvertence, which was natural, under the peculiar circumstances of the case, without any disposition to disregard the before-named agreement.

"Resolved 3. That it be strongly urged on all the Associations, connected with us, to be very careful to avoid all just grounds of complaint, with respect to the licensure of candidates under the care of any Presbytery.

Jonathan Greenleaf, Secretary of the Am. Seamen's Friend Soc. and act as Agent within the bounds of his Consociation, and Report to them of his doings : And that they further recommend to the churches of this State, to fix on some month in the year when they will make an annual collection in aid of the funds of this Society.

Resolved, That to buy and sell human beings, and to hold them, and treat them as merchandize ; or to treat servants, free and bond, in any manner inconsistent with the fact, that they are intelligent and voluntary beings, made in the image of God, is a violation of the principles of the word of God ; and should be treated by all the churches of our Lord Jesus Christ, as an immorality inconsistent with the profession of the Christian Religion.

The Committee on the State of Religion made a Report, which was accepted, and adopted. (See Appendix, No. III.)

An Overture from the New London Association was laid on the table.

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to collect from the different Associations and Consociations their various rules and usages, and to report a digest of the same to the next General Association.

The Committee on a Communication from Ministers in New Hampshire submitted a Report, which was accepted and adopted, viz:

The Committee to whom was referred the communication from a Convention of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers in New Hampshire, relative to giving greater permanency to the Pastoral Office, would report as follows:

Whereas the institution of the Gospel Ministry is vital to the best interests of Zion and of the world; and whereas a good degree of permanence, as to its pastoral relations, is necessary in order to its full and legitimate influence; Therefore,

1. Resolved, That this Association deprecate the increasing frequency with which Pastoral relations are dissolved.

2. Resolved, That we deem it inexpedient for Pastors to seek a dismission from their people, or for churches to seek the dismission of their Pastors, except for very manifest and imperative reasons; especially do we regard the practice injurious when the chief design is on the part of Pastors to secure other places, and on the part of churches to obtain other Pastors.

3. Resolved, That we regard the settlement of Pastors on such conditions as that the pastoral relation may be dissolved by either party's giving the other some specified notice, as an undesirable departure from primitive Congregational usage, and a legitimate source of much evil to ministers and churches.

4. Resolved, That the employment by the churches of stated supplies instead of settled Pastors, should be avoided as far as possible.

5. Resolved, That this Association recommend to the several District Associations to consider the above subject, and to lend their aid in giving to the Pastoral Office greater permanency, respect, and usefulness.

The following resolutions were adopted on the subject of Temperance:

Resolved, That the cause of temperance has a continued claim to the love, the prayers, and the co-operation of the ministers and churches of Connecticut.

Resolved, That the late legislative action in relation to intoxicating drinks denotes an advance in public sentiment peculiarly encouraging; and as the best human laws are unavailing unless sustained by public sentiment, it behoves the friends of temperance to increase rather than relax their efforts.

The subject of a Resolution, recommending to the Churches of the State to hold the Monthly Concert on the evening of the First day of the week instead of the second, was given to a Committee, consisting of Messrs. J. Noyes, T. Smith, and E. Hall, to report to the next General Association.

Voted, That the thanks of this Body be expressed to the people of Norwalk for their courteous and Christian hospitality during the present meeting, and to the choir of singers, for their appropriate and acceptable services.

The Association having finished the business before them, united in the closing prayer with Rev. Mr. Brainard, and then adjourned.

NO. II.

Report of the Missionary Society of Connecticut.

To the Missionary Society of Connecticut, to be convened at Norwalk, on the third Tuesday of June, 1838—the Trustees of the Society respectfully present the following Report:

Christian Friends and Brethren,

The receipts of the Missionary Society of Connecticut, for the year ending January 1, 1838, were $2646 66. The disbursements, during the same period, were $2119 15. The amount of the Permanent Fund is $29,877 25.

Of the twenty-one Missionaries employed by the Society, the past year, fourteen were stationed on the Western Reserve—two, in other parts of Ohio—one, in Indiana—two, in Illinois—one, in Northern Pennsylvania—and one, among the Mohegans, in this State. The mode of operation, and the results of effort, are so similar to those in former years, as to require no special detail.

The Trustees are called to lament the death of three of their number, during the year past,—the Hon. Jonathan Brace, John Caldwell, Esq., and Rev. Nathan Perkins, D. D. Mr. Brace was, for many years, Chairman of the Board,—and both he and Dr. Perkins, were members at the time of its incorporation in 1802. Mr. Caldwell was elected a member of the Board in 1817, and at the time of his death, was its Chairman. They were venerable men, whose services were long enjoyed, and whose worth was well appreciated, by the religious and civil community. It is not our design to eulogize them,—they need it not,—but their prompt and almost uniform attendance on the numerous meetings of the Board, during so many years, may well be held up for the imitation of their successors; and deserves the gratitude of this Society. In their example, they yet speak, urging us to fidelity in all our trusts,—and in their death, they admonish us to do with our might what our hand findeth to do.

Andrew Kingsbury, Esq., who had held the office of Treasurer of the Board from its incorporation,—has been removed from this world, since the last meeting of the Society. Faithful, accurate, and ever at his post, he was admirably fitted for such a service—and his death is a severe loss. The Trustees, agreeably to the Constitution, appointed Francis Parsons, Esq. Treasurer, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the decease of Mr. Kingsbury,—and Hon. Thomas S. Williams, in the place of Judge Brace.

In the name of the Trustees,

HORACE HOOKER, Secretary.

Hartford, June 18, 1838.

NO. III.

Report on the State of Religion.

The Committee appointed to report on the State of Religion in the churches connected with this Association, and Corresponding Bodies, respectfully Report :—

The Association are called upon with humility and gratitude to record the rich blessings of grace which God has caused to descend upon the churches of this State within the year. In some of the District Associations, seven-eighths of the churches have been refreshed from the presence of the Lord. Marked revivals of religion have existed in sixty or seventy churches in the State, and more than usual attention to religion has prevailed in many of the congregations. In the counties of Hartford and Litchfield, the operations of the Holy Spirit have been especially manifest; but the salvation of the Lord, with very limited exceptions, has extended throughout all our borders. In the promotion of this heavenly work, it is particularly to be noticed, that the labors of pastors have been unusually blessed, and that the order and decency of the Gospel have been maintained. The benefit of instruction in Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes has been exceedingly apparent in these outpourings of the Spirit of God, and more than an usual proportion of youth have turned unto the Lord.

It is encouraging to the friends of Zion, that Sabbath-schools, in many of our congregations are exciting increased interest.

The efforts which have been made to promote the progress of Temperance, have not been in vain. It is, however, felt, that while on the part of many, the importance and excellence of the principles of this reformation are more fully acknowledged than ever, the number in the community is still great, over whom that strong drink which is raging, is extending its seductive and fatal power.

Amid the pecuniary embarrassments which have affected all classes in society, the public charities of the churches have not, on the whole, been diminished, as was feared. The collections for some objects, have considerably exceeded those of the preceding year, and in many instances, liberality has abounded in poverty.

Attendance upon public worship is much the same as in other years. The number, however, of those who disregard the Sabbath, and slight the institutions of religion, is still such as justly to excite our apprehension and alarm.

Yale College is in a state of prosperity. The Theological school connected with it has about ninety members, which is a greater number than at any former period. It is proposed, in this department, to elect a Professor of Pastoral Duty, as soon as the funds requisite for his support can be obtained.

The Theological Institute of Connecticut, at East Windsor, continues to enjoy the smiles of the Head of the Church. Its present number of students is thirty-eight. The hope is fondly cherished by many of the friends of Zion, that the influence of this Institution upon the churches will be eminently salutary.

During the year, several of the Pastors of the churches have fallen in death. Rev. Nathan Perkins, D. D., who for many years sustained the character of an eminent father in the ministry, has entered upon his rest. His faith, example, and counsels, will cause his memory long to be cherished with respect and affection by the generation which he has left behind. Rev. Joseph E. Camp has been suddenly called away, in a good old age, with the character of those who are declared to be blessed. Rev. William Andrews, and Rev. Charles Prentice, have deceased while in the maturity of their powers, and have left their churches and their brethren mourners. Their lives were devoted to the service of their Divine Master, and during sickness and protracted suffering, the consolations of his Spirit were with them. Rev. Stephen Crosby, a brother greatly beloved, has also recently deceased, while about to resume the relation which, during a part of his ministry, he had sustained to our churches. By these repeated instances of mortality among our brethren, we are warned that our own labors will soon be brought to a close. Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord, when he cometh, shall find watching.

The Delegate from the General Association of Massachusetts reports, "That the churches in connexion with that Body, have been specially blessed, during the past year, with the effusions of the Holy Spirit. The revivals, so far as human instrumentality has been concerned, have been conducted by the pastors of the churches. The operations of Divine Grace have been marked by stillness and great power, and large numbers have been received into many of the churches. The cause of Christian benevolence has continued to advance notwithstanding the almost unparalleled embarrassments of the times."

The Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island report, that although there have been no extensive revivals of religion in their churches during the past year, several congregations have shared in the special influences of the Holy Spirit. "The cause of benevolence is gaining ground. Harmony and brotherly love prevail throughout their borders. Being settled upon the great truths of the Gospel, as held by their fathers, they enjoy peace among themselves, as they contend for the faith once delivered to the saints."

The Delegate from the General Conference of Maine, represents, "their churches and county conferences as maintaining unbroken their mutual fellowship, and enjoying its accompanying peace. A considerable number of churches have been favored with revivals of religion, which, to an unusual extent, have been the result of the Divine blessing upon the ordinary ministrations of the Gospel, and have been characterized, apparently, by the noiseless and thorough operations of the Spirit." An increasing attachment is manifested to religious and benevolent institutions.

The Delegates from the General Convention of Vermont report, that the churches of that State are in harmony, and that religion has, on the whole, an encouraging aspect. Revivals have taken place in many churches; and to most of the others, in which the stated ordinances of the Gospel are enjoyed, additions have been made from time to time.

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church no delegation has appeared, except from the Body called the Constitutional Assembly, and from them we have received a Report on the State of Religion. While we participate in the pain and regret which have been felt by the church at large, in view of the unhappy controversies by which the harmony of that branch of our Zion has been disturbed; we are happy to learn that the last year has been, to a large portion of their churches, a year of the right-hand of the Most High. "In no year, with one exception," it is stated, "have their churches enjoyed so richly or so generally the reviving influences of the Holy Spirit." Two hundred and thirty-four of their congregations have enjoyed special revivals of religion during the last year. In these revivals, the great cities of New York and Philadelphia, and the large and growing churches of Western New York and Ohio have most largely participated. The benevolent action of that branch of the church is represented as on the increase, and their Theological Seminaries are also flourishing.

From the other Ecclesiastical Bodies in correspondence with this Association no reports have been received.

The General Association acknowledge with devout gratitude to God the success which has accompanied the labors of foreign and home missionaries, during the year, and rejoice in the unwearied efforts which are made by these and all other labors of love to extend the blessings of salvation through the land and the world.
